From Your Editor

by K4KWN

After getting the station just about back together after the winter storms, along comes a Lulu of a stormy season in the Ohio Valley. It seems that we had someone over to the National Weather Service just about every day passing on emergency communications because of the storms. In fact, the local Gas and Electric Company (the president by the way being WD4CQF, Bob Royer) had over 100,000 customers without power. It took over a week and a half to get things put back together and 24 hours later along came another storm which took out 30,000 customers again! So, other than 2 meters, your editor is somewhat silent!

And speaking of silent, we almost had a Silent Key among the ranks of the Louisville radio amateurs. Pete Bard, WA4AUN (and Chairman of the Louisville Hamfest Association), was erecting a new AV-5 vertical and was momentarily distracted. The antenna leaned across a 4KW line and the result was no fewer than 27 separate burns where the electricity found ground through Pete's body! Understand that Pete is no novice in dealing with high power or with amateur radio. I guess that goes to show that we all need to pay attention when engaging in all aspects of our hobby!

On to other matters...in this issue we have a Message from Megalopolis and a cartoon which was stolen and modified from local editor John Brodt, WD40EF. John writes the monthly newsletter for the HOTSHOTS Amateur Radio Club. His cartoons have appeared here before. I know John would have thought of the idea first, but he really isn't very punny!

We have news from the Board of Directors. The latest Word Search puzzle is included; the words being recently heard on the Severe Weather Nets. And a long list of awards is being published.

Before closing, let me encourage all members of our Club to drop me a line and tell me about the happenings in your area. I really enjoy getting in on all of the gossip and am not adverse to 'lifting' a good idea from someone else to give you enjoyment!

Message from Megalopolis

by Header O. Dyne

Header O. Dyne's nephew, Soupy, made it out of the Air Force (see last issue). Because he had experience in the military, the folks in Megalopolis made him Superintendent of the Megalopolis Elemental School System (MESS for short).

As the leader of the system, Soupy prepared guidelines for students to use when submitting term papers. Header was so proud of these guidelines, he sent me a copy. They are reproduced below.

1. Corect spelling is essential.
2. Don't use no double negative.
3. Make each pronoun agree with their antecedent.
4. Join clauses good, like a conjunction should.
5. About them sentence fragments.
6. When dangling, watch your participles.
7. Verbs has to agree with their subject.
8. Just between you and I, case is important to.
9. Don't write run-on sentences they are hard to read.
10. Don't use commas, which aren't necessary.
11. Try not to over split infinitives.
12. Its important to use your apostrophe's correctly.
13. Proofread your theme to see if any words out.
